Placidus House System

The 1st House

The 1st House cusp is, in most cases, the Ascendant or Rising Sign of his chart. It indicates his primary motivation in life and describes Justin, his self-expression and vitality. It is his physical appearance and the way others see him and interact with him. The house placement of his 1st House ruler shows the areas of life that are of primary importance to him. Also, planets in his 1st House influence how he presents himself to the world.

Ascendant in Scorpio

Justin's primary motivation in life is to feel emotionally secure. He has an intense and magnetic personality capable of exercising a fascination over others. Aware of his power, he knows how to use it, but can abuse it. When meeting new people, he tends to be initially guarded and wary. Acutely intuitive, he can sense the mood of any environment. He has strong survival instincts and will fight for what he believes.

1st House Cusp Ruler, Mars, in 3rd House

He realises his primary motivation in life through developing and exercising his skills as a communicator. He has a keen interest in the comings and goings of his immediate surroundings. An interest in early education or languages is possible.

Ascendant Square Mercury (5°31' S)

He has a keen mind and quite possibly an above average intelligence. He is sharp-witted and alert to what's happening around him. A clear communicator, he expresses himself lucidly and frankly.

Also, he is a good conversationalist because he is curious about what interests others. Intellectually, he has a questioning mind, coupled with the capability to form his own opinions. Negatively, he can have a tendency to be judgemental or overly critical of people whose views contradict his own. He may engage in gossip.

Ascendant Square Mars (3°55' S)

A strong character, he expresses an assertive and, occasionally, forceful personality towards others in the environment. His manner is direct and frank. He is ambitious for recognition and achieves successes through his own efforts and self-motivation. He is a good organiser and likes being in charge of situations.

Negatively, he can be pushy, argumentative and prepared to resort to bullying tactics to get his own way. Also, a tendency to rush into things without considering the consequences can place him in awkward situations.

Ascendant Square Saturn (4°43' A)

He is quite a complex person; some days he comes across as shy or inhibited and other days as controlling. He is very practical and takes his responsibilities seriously. He is quite self-contained and tends to keep his own counsel, consulting with others only when he needs to. This can make him appear aloof or distant. Sometimes he experiences difficulties relating to others. He may shun company and spend periods in seclusion. It is possible that he may experience periodic bouts of low vitality.

Ascendant Sextile Uranus (4°10' S)

Variety is the spice of life as far as he is concerned. He does not like being stuck in any situation or place for very long; consequently he will have many changes of environment and acquaintances. His outlooks are modern and progressive and he is right up to speed with whatever's happening in the world.

Ascendant Sextile Neptune (6°30' S)

He has an active imagination and is easily inspired and may show great talent in any of the creative fields - especially music, theatre and writing. He instinctively tunes into others and seems to understand their needs without them saying a word.

Ascendant Conjunct Pluto (0°58' S)

He has a forceful personality and likes to be in positions of control and power. He has an intense and magnetic presence and can have a powerful effect on other people. He tends to dominate others and, as a consequence, often finds himself involved in power struggles.

In extreme cases, he can come across as dictatorial and, if he feels his authority is threatened, can resort to ruthless or oppressive behaviour. He has great will-power, which he can direct into projects of personal interest, however, he will need to learn how to work with others if he wants their cooperation.

The 2nd House

The 2nd House is associated with personal assets and financial affairs. It governs all moveable possessions and wealth.

2nd House Cusp in Capricorn

Money is a serious business to Justin. Irrespective of his financial situation, he doesn't tend to be frivolous or extravagant, possibly because he has a fear of poverty. He works hard for his money and manages it well by investing carefully.

He is essentially an idealist who sometimes sees the world through rose-tinted glasses. As a result, he can perceive situations to be quite different from what they are in reality.

Neptune Conjunct Uranus (2°20' S)

These two planets only come together every 172 years; most recently in 1993 and prior to that in 1821. People that are born during the conjunction are destined to have a special, almost indefinable aura about them.

They combine idealism with innovation; hence they have the capability to imagine possibilities and to make them a reality, through making use of progressive thinking and technological knowledge. A vivid example of the effects of the 1993 conjunction is the limitless potential of the Internet; it incorporates the most up to date computer technology and dissolves national boundaries. On a personal level, he has a deep interest in spiritual development. He may be psychically gifted, if other factors in his horoscope support this.

Neptune Sextile Pluto (5°32' A)

Neptune and Pluto are the solar system's slowest moving planets; consequently, aspects between them last for a great number of years and their effects are more collective than personal. Since 1940 and continuing until about 2040 they are in sextile aspect to each other.

The major effect of this is to accentuate spiritual awareness and development en masse. He is part of a generation that is intent on exploring and refining the inner aspect of life and consciousness itself. He will be aware of a universal interest in metaphysical subjects, clairvoyance and psychical research.

Neptune Trine Midheaven (7°07' A)
